

2.4.4 Student Conduct

POLICY

College of the Rockies' (the College) Student Conduct Policy is designed to promote behaviour that reflects our values — behaviour that also reflects the honesty, trust and fairness we expect in the actions of all members of our community. The Student Conduct Policy establishes College of the Rockies' standards of student behaviour and outlines the procedures to be followed if the standards are not met.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide clear expectations of appropriate academic and non-academic student conduct and to establish processes for resolution of conduct issues or the imposition of discipline for unacceptable conduct.

The policy is developed as per the College and Institute Act Sections: 23 (1) (j); 24 (2) (e); and 37 (2), (3), (4).

SCOPE

This policy covers all students enrolled in a College course or program, on or off campus, as well as applicants, while engaged in College-related activities. This policy does not apply to conduct relating to the College Residence, the International Home Stay Program, off campus housing arrangements or Discrimination / Harassment (Policy 4.8.6) issues.

EXAMPLES OF PLAGIARISM
APPENDIX A

- Representing the work of others as your own is plagiarism. You are required to quote and cite sources in a way that gives proper credit and avoids plagiarism. When in doubt about how to acknowledge a source, consult your instructor, instructional and research librarian or reference desk staff. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, the following:
 - Submitting an assignment, as your own but written by someone else, in whole or in part (e.g., paragraph, essay, report, lab report, technical drawing, exam, etc.). This is plagiarism even if you make revisions to the original work.
 - Submitting an assignment in which you have copied or cut and pasted one or more passages from one or more other works or an internet site without enclosing those passages in quotation marks and providing clear, correct citations for those passages.
 - Submitting an assignment in which you take one or more ideas from another work(s) without citing them, even when you reword or put those ideas in your own words (that is, paraphrasing them). You must provide clear, correct citations for theories, arguments, facts, stories, or other information that you did not come up with on your own.
 - Submitting an assignment that an editor or tutor, whether amateur or professional, has partially or entirely rewritten for you. A tutor is not a copy editor. A tutor's role is to explain general principles of writing, grammar, syntax, punctuation, and spelling.
 - Submitting a group project which contains plagiarism. It is the responsibility of all members of the group to monitor the progress of the work to ensure that plagiarism does not occur.
