Relational Practice 2: Creating Health and Promoting Relationships – NURS 213
Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) Program
Course Outline

COURSE IMPLEMENTATION DATE: September 2008
OUTLINE EFFECTIVE DATE: September 2016
COURSE OUTLINE REVIEW DATE: April 2021

GENERAL COURSE DESCRIPTION:

In this course participants move beyond the personal discovery focus of Relational Practice 1 to a focus on relational caring. The major emphasis of the course is relational practice with individuals, families and groups from diverse backgrounds of age, culture and experience. This is an experiential course designed to deepen the participant’s understanding of caring, and how the connection between caring and relationship provides the context for health and healing. Participants explore theories and processes of caring, relational identity, development of self as a nurse and relational practice as enacted across a range of settings and contexts.

Program Information: This course is required for the second year of the Bachelor of Science in Nursing program. The materials in this course represent a component of a four year integrated BSN program.

Delivery: This course is delivered face-to-face.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon the successful completion of this course, students should be able to

- understand the relationship with client, family and nursing team and begin to critically reflect on ethical ways of being in these relationships;
- explore relationships and relational capacities with clients of various ages;
- examine relational processes that support a growing understanding of the personal meaning clients give to health and healing; and
- formulate a personal conception of the role of a nurse when collaborating with the client, family and nursing team in establishing health-promoting relationships.

COURSE TOPICS:

Process:

This course supports the participants’ beginning nursing practice through methodologies and assignments that enable participants to reflect on their relationships with actual clients and working groups. Having opportunities to examine critical incidents, within the participants’ own relational experiences with a client, the nursing team or life within student groups, plays a central role in the construction of the course. The intention is that course concepts stress more self-awareness and relational ways of being than solely skills and mechanistic approaches to relationship. A beginning ability to examine and critique one’s actions in light of espoused beliefs about caring relationship is encouraged. Participants are also encouraged to “follow through” or enact newer understandings that are being acquired throughout the course.

ATTENDANCE AND ASSIGNMENT REQUIREMENTS:

See COTR Nursing Program Admission and Progression Policies

ADDITIONAL RELEVANT INFORMATION/POLICIES:

1. All learning experiences are mandatory. Students who are unable to attend a scheduled learning event must notify the instructor at the earliest possible opportunity.

2. Absence from learning experiences, for any reason, may prevent the student being able to meet the requirements for that course. Students who have missed 10% or more of their clinical practice experiences will be evaluated for their eligibility to remain in the program. (clinical courses only!)

3. All assignments must be submitted by the due date. A penalty of 10% per calendar day will be deducted for late assignments. Extensions will be considered on an individual basis when legitimate circumstances support the student’s request, provided the extension is negotiated 48 hours in advance of the due date.

4. Please save all assignment files to include your first initial, last name, course name and assignment name. For example, J DoeNURS213RPiIPaper

EXAM POLICY:

Students must attend all required scheduled exams that make up a final grade at the appointed time and place.

Individual instructors may accommodate for illness or personal crisis. Additional accommodation will not be made unless a written request is sent to and approved by the appropriate Department Head prior to the scheduled exam.

Any student who misses a scheduled exam without approval will be given a grade of “0” for the exam.
